STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weaken, and become diseased.

Kodol

enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. It nourishes the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, restoring health and strength. Kodol cures indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

Digests What You Eat

$1 Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size. Prepared at the Laboratory of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Murders in Chicago.

Richard J. Ivens, the self-confessed murderer of Mrs. Franklin C. Hollister, in Chicago, was yesterday subjected to a severe examination by the police in the effort to obtain from him the names of his accomplices, it being thought possible that Mrs. Hollister was kept a prisoner part of the day. Ivens declared that he had no accomplices, and that he alone committed the crime. During the examination the aged father of Ivens sat in the room, with the tears streaming down his face, hoping that mitigation of his son's offense might be found in the fact that others were with him at the time the woman was killed. When the examination was concluded the old man asked his son: "Did you really do this alone?" "Yes; I did it alone," replied the son.

Two more murders were added Sunday night to the long list of crimes that has taken place in Chicago of late. The first victim was Anton Spychalski, who was attacked by two robbers at the corner of Washington Boulevard and Sangamon street. He showed fight, and one of them shot him through the body, inflicting a wound that caused death in two hours.

The second crime was committed at the intersection of May and Randolph streets, where Joseph Kane was attacked by bandits, who beat him so terribly about the head that his death ensued within a short time.

Protests loud and insistent come from Chicago pulpits against the lawless conditions which were held responsible for the murder of Mrs. Franklin C. Hollister. This crime, added to the killing of three other women within a few months and the murder of two men in the streets Thursday night, roused the ministers and congregations to demand better protection be given by the police to women.

Mayor Dunne, who returned during the day from Denver, joined in the appeal, saying that the city needed more policemen. He declared it the duty of the council to provide the means for putting a large enough force of policemen out to cover the city thoroughly. This also was demanded by the First Methodist Church. Plans for a mass-meeting to compass this end were made by others.

Sorrow and anger mingled in the services at the Wesley Methodist Church, of which Mrs. Hollister was a member. Members of the choir in which she had sung could not sit in their seats before the congregation, but remained in the pews.

The Liberal Landslide.

The liberal landside in England continues. Out of 76 contests yesterday the liberals and laborites together secured 62 seats. The liberals' gains yesterday show the surprising total of 42, while the unionists gained only 1 seat, that of Hastings.

The former Cabinet officers went down before the storm of liberal sentiment. Gerald Balfour, who was president of the local government board in the Balfour Cabinet, was defeated at Leeds by a majority of 1,069, and Walter Hume Long, ex chief secretary for Ireland, lost his seat for South Bristol, while Augustine Birrell, president of the board of education, defeated the unionist candidate at North Bristol.

Lord Hugh Cecil, leader of the conservative free-traders, was defeated at Greenwich, and T. Gibson Bowles, a unionist free-trader, lost at Kings Lynn, both being opposed by Chamberlainites.

Aside from the overwhelming gains by the liberals throughout the country, the immense majorities secured in the turn-over are causes of surprises to both sides.

The labor candidates are showing remarkable strength, the total gains of the labor party yesterday being seven, not including one socialist, W. Thorne, who, at Westham, defeated the unionist candidate, Sir J. G. Nutting, by a majority of 5,000.

The composition of the new Parliament up to the present is as follows:

Liberals, 95; unionists, 31; laborites, 17; nationalists, 18, and socialists, 1.

The total liberal gains number 64, the gains made by the laborites being classed among the liberals.

Twenty-one London districts voted yesterday. Out of these hitherto unionist strongholds the unionists succeeded in securing only five seats.

Three members of the new ministry were returned yesterday by strong majorities—Herbert John Gladstone, Secretary for Home Affairs; President of Board of Education Birrell and James Bryce, Chief Secretary for Ireland. The Attorney-General, Sir J. Lawson, also received a large majority.

The independent labor party has already secured more seats than it held in the previous House of Commons. The laborites won under the dual flag of "liberal" and "labor," and will be found ranged with the liberals on all labor questions.

Six more nationalists, including William H Redmond, East Clare, and Sir Thomas Esmond, North Wexford, were returned unopposed, making the nationalists total eighteen.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks when I was was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was re cued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure, stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are the best thing for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever sold," says J. R. Cullman, a druggist of Potterville, Mich. They are easy to take and always gives satisfaction. I tell my customers to try them and if not satisfactory to come back and get their money, but have never had a complaint." Patrick Reprieved.

Albert T. Patrick, the New York lawyer convicted and awaiting execution in Sing Sing, N. Y., prison next week for the murder of William Marsh Rice in New York city in September 1900, was reprieved yesterday afternoon by Gov. Higgins until March 19, a space of fifty-six days. This reprieve is granted for the purpose of giving Patrick's counsel time to bring before a trial court alleged newly discovered evidence. Its granting followed a hearing before the governor, and was in accordance with the request of former Senator David B. Hill and Judge William K. Olcott, of counsel for Patrick, and with the full consent of District Attorney Jerome, who was present in person. Senator Hill came forth for the first time from his sick room after an illness of more than two months in order to attend the hearing and addressed the governor at considerable length.

Vassar Heiress Vanishes.

After an interview, in which she was confronted with certain facts, Kathryn Gray, "heiress to $500,000, graduate of Vassar College and daughter of the late Senator Asbury Gray, of Virginia," has disappeared from the home of T. W. Bausman, of Pittsburg. She has not been seen since late on Wednesday night. She had been treated by the Bausmans as a daughter, and Mrs. Bausman is very ill as a result of Miss Gray's disappearance. After Miss Gray had told thrilling stories about the Virginia fortune of which she had been deprived, Mr. Bausman induced her to retain a Pittsburg lawyer to look after her interests. She did so, giving the lawyer a check for $150 on a local bank, which reported that she had but $5 on deposit there, when she explained that an expected remittance had been delayed. In departing she took with her only the clothing she wore.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing Nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics gripe, weaken—dissipate, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers simply expel all putrid matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

CAMPBELL'S SOUPS.—5 cases Tomato Chicken, Vegetable, Clam Chowder, and other varieties of soups just received by J. C. MILBURN.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 16, 1906

THE LARGE crowd which blocked the space without the bar of the Police Court this morning gazed upon the anxious countenances of two men who have just entered the threshold of life. They were to face the tribunal on a warrant bearing the terrible charge of murder. Whether the crime will be proven remains to be seen. At any rate the imputation is plain and the young men must now prove their innocence. The facts in connection with the offense with which they are charged are terrible, and are fresh in the minds of all readers of the Gazette. Whether or not these young men were parties to the crime remains to be seen; a proper tribunal will decide their guilt or innocence. They may be as innocent as babes and be the victims of circumstances, but it appears that they were the last persons known by the authorities to have been with the man who was later murdered, robbed, his body mutilated and the remains thrown into a city dock. This murder has naturally caused much comment and much interest is manifested in every circumstance which is printed in connection with it, and all good citizens sympathize with the authorities in their attempts to unravel the mystery. The young men who are now in the meshes of the law are Alexandrians and have grown up in our midst. Their relatives are now compelled to bear burdens not their own, and they have the sympathy of all who know them. It is but another unfortunate case where innocent people are compelled to become vicarious sufferers.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT faces the same situation in the republican party that confronted Mr. Cleveland during his last term. He is opposed by an angry and rebellious Congress. There are prophets who say the outcome will be as disastrous for the President's party as the results of the warfare between President Cleveland and his Congress were for the democratic party. President Roosevelt has never been on particularly good terms with his Congresses. He is too arbitrary for that. Still he has managed to slide along by giving in here and there, and the opposition has contented itself with mutterings. The mutterings have now developed into a roar. The Fifty-ninth Congress is openly rebellious. It refuses to be dictated to by the President. Both branches are in the same mood.

THE ship subsidy men are getting desperate lest their bill, by which the many are to be taxed for the benefit of the ship owners, be defeated in Congress, so have elicited Secretary Taft's aid in their behalf. The latter has sent Senator Gallinger, of the Merchant Marine Commission, a paper stating that the American forces could not be transported over the sea in case of a war with a foreign country, or to defend the insular possessions unless there should be an immediate and great increase in the number of American ships suitable for transport services! For ways that are dark the subsidyists are peculiar and the above referred to scheme is but one of many to get money out of the public treasury. This time they put it on the score of patriotism!

AT A meeting of the Bartholomew County Medical Society, at Columbia, Ind., last week, Dr. E. U. Wood read a paper on "Grip," in which he said that neither quinine nor whisky was good medicine to be used either before or during an attack of grip. Physicians attending the meeting agreed with him, and hereafter people who take whisky for the grip will be committing the same sin in the eyes of the local medical profession as if they had actually fallen from the water wagon.

PROSECUTION of Toronto plumbers individually for conspiracy and combination in restraint of trade resulted yesterday in 134 men pleading guilty; the fines amounted to $10,600. This was in Canada, not in the United States. Here combines in restraint of trade go scott free.

The digging of the Panama canal will be done by contract. This policy has been decided upon by the canal commission with the President's approval and formal announcement of the fact will probably be made within a few days. The work will be done under the supervision of the engineers of the commission. The question as to whether the commission has authority under the law to let out this work to private contractors was recently submitted to Attorney General Moody for an opinion. He has responded that the Spooner law, which authorizes the construction of the canal leaves the method of construction entirely to the discretion of the President and commission. This decided the matter and plans are now being formulated by the commission to subdivide the work into sections upon which bids may be asked. No bids will be called for until the question is finally decided by Congress as to whether it shall be a sea-level canal or one with locks. Each section will be of an average length of two miles, which will enable 25 or 30 contractors to take part in the work. By letting the work out on contract the government will be relieved of many embarrassments, especially in connection with the employment of labor. It is expected to result in speedier work and the earlier completion of the canal.

Judge Robert Christie, one of the best informed and best known men who frequent the Capitol, in a conversation a day or two ago with Congressman Grosvenor, one of the republican standpatters, told the Congressman that if he (Judge C.) were allowed to supervise the weighing of the mails, for which the big railroad combines are paid to carry, he could effect an annual saving to the government sufficient to build the Panama canal. This but shows what Judge Christie thinks of the graft in the mail contracts.

The reception tendered by Speaker Cannon, at his home last night, to the members of the House, the newspaper correspondents, &c., was very largely attended and politics for the nonce was forgotten. The Speaker is a very popular man with democrats and republicans alike.

Gov. elect Swanson expects to resign his seat in Congress on the thirtieth of January. He says he might have resigned earlier but some of the democrats of the House have asked him to withhold his resignation as long as possible, as it is possible there may be some close votes.

The investigation of Panama canal affairs by the Senate committee on interoceanic canal began this morning. Chief Engineer Stevens, who has been in charge of the work on the isthmus for the six months, was the first witness. His examination will probably last over tomorrow. Maj. Gallagher, assistant purchasing agent of the canal commission, who has been relieved of that duty and is under orders to rejoin his regiment in the Phillipines, will be called next, and on Thursday Poultney Bigelow, whose recent attack on the canal management attracted so much attention, is expected to be heard. Senator Millard, chairman of the committee, said this morning that he hardly expected the investigation to be concluded before the middle of March.

The republican insurgents against the Philippine tariff bill met their first defeat this afternoon, on two amendments offered by Mr. Smith, of Michigan. His proposition to make the new tariff on sugar and tobacco 60 instead of 25 per cent of the Dingley bill schedules, and to strike out the provision for absolute free trade after April 11, 1909, was defeated 197 to 73.

Representative McCall, republican Massachusetts, attempted to amend the Philippine bill in the House today by promising independence to the Filipinos when they shall have demonstrated their fitness for self-governments. The chair, ruled the amendment out as not germane. Mr. McCall appealed from the decision of the chair and lost on party vote, 198 to 123. Only two republicans voted with Mr. McCall Fordney, and Hoar.

The third defeat for the insurgents came in the House this afternoon, when the amendmedts by Fordney and Cassell limiting the amount of sugar and tobacco which may be brought in annually, at twenty-five per cent. of the regular Dingley rate was defeated by a vote of 126 to 66.

Business men from every State in the union were present as delegates at the opening session of the 36th annual meeting of the National Board of Trade at the New Willard at noon today. Col. J. J. Sullivan, of Cleveland, the president, delivered his annual address to the 300 delegates present. His was a plea for an awakening of enthusiasm among business men in public questions. He said he would decline a re-election as president.

At the meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress this morning Harvey Goulder, of Cleveland, was chosen president; William H. Love, of Baltimore, secretary, and E. R. Sharwood, of Philadelphia, treasurer. The executive committee was instructed to take such steps and use such means as will tend to mold public opinion and to secure annual legislation for the improvement of rivers and harbors. Resolutions were adopted urging the annual appropriation of $50,000,000 until the $300,000,000 or $400,000,000 improvement regarded as worthy shall have been appropriated by Congress.

Delegate Mark Smith, of Arizona, who announced last night that he would rise to a question of personal privilege in the House today and demand an inquiry, if proper denial was not made of the alleged charge by President Roosevelt that money is being used by the anti joint statehood fighting, has changed his programme. After a conference this morning with Representatives Babcock and Minor, of Wisconsin, leaders of the republican statehood insurgents, Delegate Smith said: "I have all kinds of bitter stuff in my craw, but my republican friends who are with me in this fight have counselled me to hold off for the present and I have agreed."

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 16.

SENATE.

When the Senate met today, there was laid before it a supplemental brief from ex-Queen Lilluokalani of Hawaii, in her claim for $10,000,000 damages. It says it was based upon the rules of reason, morality, humanity, and justice and asks for "luminos equity."

A joint resolution was agreed to directing the Secretary of the Navy to present the bell of the old sloop "Germantown" to a relic society of Germantown, Pa.

A resolution offered by Mr. Tillman was agreed to. It directed the Senate committee on naval affairs to inquire into the practice of the navy department relative to the employment of pilots; also into the cause and responsibility for the recent collision of battleships in New York harbor.

HOUSE.

Chaplain Cowden in his prayer opening the session of the House paid tribute to the heroism of Captain Castro, who saved the lives of the passengers on the Cherokee, drawing therefrom the lesson of self-sacrifice.

Mr. Stenerson, of Minnesota, arose to a question of personal privilege, presenting a newspaper article, which related that President Roosevelt had said to him that if he had known that he was an insurgent on the Philippine tariff bill he would not have made a certain appointment for him. Stenerson denied the story and branded the article as false.

"There was no such language used by the President at any time, nor anything susceptible of such meaning." He denied also, that he was an "insurgent," explaining that he was in favor of the bill.

The House passed a resolution calling on the Secretary of State for all letters bearing on the recall from Austria of immigrant inspector Marcus Braun of New York.

The House then, in committee of the whole, took up the Philippine tariff bill under the five minute rule for amendments.

It is intended to bring it to a vote today or tomorrow.

The Morocco delegation appointment was the occasion of a prolonged debate in the Senate yesterday in the course of which Senators Hale and Bacon severely arraigned the administration's foreign policy. Senator Hale made a strong appeal in favor of the strict observance of that other settled American policy, enunciated by General Washington in his farewell address, of not engaging in "entangling alliances" with foreign powers.

The suit for divorce brought by Prince Philip of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha against his wife, Princess Louise, eldest daughter of King Leopold of Belgium, which has been before the courts for many months, was concluded yesterday, when the divorce court rendered a decision providing for an absolute divorce. The question of which party was guilty was not raised. The princess receives a lump sum of $80,000 and $1,400 monthly from Prince Philip and will also receive an annuity of 10,000 from King Leopold.

It is reported that Ambassador White, representing the United States at the Moroccan conference at Algeciras, will support the German contention both as to the "open door" in Morocco and as to an international commission to control the policing of the country. It is suggested that this may make the adoption of the German view probable, particularly in the light of the fact that Russia has shown marked indifference to the appeal of France for support. The influence of the Vatican is also understood to be hostile to France.

Senator Dryden has revised his bill contemplating government control of insurance and will reintroduce it in the Senate today. He has followed very closely the investigation being conducted by the New York legislative committee and this has aided him in perfecting his measure until now he expresses the belief that it will correct practically all of the insurance evils exposed by the New York inquiry. Publicity is the keynote of the bill, and coupled with this are safeguards for the detection of wrongdoing and the punishment of those so offending.

To Construct Another Road.

Chief Engineer of Construction Wells, of the Southern Railway, awarded a contract at Knoxville yesterday for the construction of the Johnson City Railroad, a coal road which will run from Embreeville, Tenn., to Marion, N. C. The Southern has been practically forced to build this line, proposed by the construction of the South and Western Railroad along the Wautauga river into the Carolinas. The new road will be about ninety miles long and will have many tunnels. It will save the Southern a haulage of about seventy miles, the road now hauling all coal from the Virginia fields into the Carolinas by way of Morristown. The Southern has awarded this contract to W. J. Oliver & Co., of Knoxville, and the price will be in excess of $5,000,000. It will require fully three years to complete the enterprise.

Wedding Question a Hard One.

More puzzling than questions of statecraft is the one that is agitating the minds of those at the White House at present:

"Whom shall we invite to Miss Alice's wedding?" The trouble is not that there is any scarcity of persons entitled to invitations, but that there are too many whom the families of the Roosevelts and Longworths are desirous of having present. It is expected that at least 500 invitations will be issued, and, even with that large number, there is grave danger that some persons will feel slighted. Long conferences are being held daily to revise the lists of guests, but the question is far from being a settled one.

Tentative plans for the ceremony include the placing of the guests in the East Room and a procession from the upper corridor down the western staircase, and through the wing and corridor into the historic chamber identified with events in the lives of the Chief Executives of the American nation for more than a century. Miss Roosevelt will enter on her father's arm, and will be followed by the members of the family, her venerable grandmother, Mrs. George C. Lee, and the numerous connections of her mother in Boston. Kermit Roosevelt will escort his mother; Miss Ethel will walk with Archibald, and Quentin will be conducted by his cousin, William S. Cowles, jr.

Longworth and his best man will enter the East Room, in advance of the clergyman. They will pass through the state drawing room and take their places under the massive chandelier a few feet from the south wall, and there await the coming of the bride. Miss Roosevelt dislikes conventional ideas, and she will have no floral bell or bower. The banking of plants and the placing of tall vases filled with Bride roses will mark the temporary altar, but otherwise the apartment will be unencumbered by decorations. No attempt will be made to seat the guests at the ceremony or the breakfast.

Elopement.

Despite her engagement to a man whom she was to marry in the spring, Miss Bertha Bowers, the pretty sixteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Annie Bowers, the proprietress of a hotel in Winchester, and Lorendo Price, a brakeman in the employ of the Cumberland Valley Railroad Company, eloped to Hagerstown, Md., and were married yesterday afternoon. The bride sent a telephone message to her mother announcing her marriage. Miss Bowers and Lester Haines, a son of a prominent merchant at Capon Bridge, W. Va., had been lovers for several years, and it had been arranged that when young Haines completed a business course at a college in Washington, D. C., they were to be married. The young lady recently met Price, however, and fell in love with him. At the home of a mutual friend near Winchester the elopement was planned Sunday. Miss Bowers had been forbidden by her mother to see Price. They met at the depot in Winchester yesterday afternoon and boarded a train for Hagerstown where the ceremony was performed.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Algeciras Conference.

Algeciras, Spain, Jan. 16.—The international congress to determine the future position of Morocco and to ease the situation brought about by German'y objection to France's paramount position in the country, opens here at three o'clock this afternoon. The United States, the European powers, and Morocco are represented. The American delegates are Henry White, the American Ambassador to Rome, and Mr. Gummere, Minister at Tangier.

There is considerable uneasiness among the delegates lest a deadlock may be reached at the conference that will produce a dangerous Franco-German crisis. France is determined that her paramount rights in Morocco shall be recognized, and Germany insists that German subjects shall have perfect freedom of trade with the country.

The deciding influence will rest in all probability with the United States. Should America side with France the French government will assume an uncompromising attitude toward the Kaiser, but if America lends the weight of her influence to Germany France will be forced to lessen her claims

All the powers recognize that America is the only disinterested power at the Congress, and it is possible that the end may be an informal arbitration conference with the American delegates acting as arbitrators.

It is believed here that in this event, America will cast her vote for a compromise, recognizing France's superior rights in Morocco, but at the same time binding France to agree to freedom of trade for all countries.

Paris, Jan. 16.—Confidence in the pacific outcome of the Algeciras conference, even if no entente is reached on the subject of Morocco, is felt in French official circles. A leading diplomatist in an interview today with the correspondent of the Publishers Press, evidently giving an inspired opinion, said: "If the conference ends in a rupture, further negotiations regarding Morocco will certainly be necessary in another form, but nothing at the present moment justifies alarm, or the belief that war with Germany will follow."

Drowned in a Tunnel.

New York, Jan. 16.—Trapped in an air lock at the foot of a shaft in the middle of the East river and twenty feet below the surface four men, at work on the Belmont tunnel met an awful death by suffocation when an air hose burst early today. Two others narrowly escaped death and were unconscious when taken out by their fellow workmen who risked their lives to rescue them. Two bodies were recovered shortly after the accident. The remaining two were covered by water which poured into the lock when the air pressure was removed. Pumps were soon set to work to clear the lock of water and uncover the corpses. That the four victims died in terrible torture was shown by the contorted faces of the two who were recovered. Realizing that their air supply had been cut off, and that if they did not die from lack of air, they would be drowned by the water that was pouring in on them from every crevice, they had made frantic efforts to escape. Before they could do so, however they fell from weakness and died. That at least two of the men did not succumb until the water covered and drowned them is the belief of the other workmen. The shaft at the bottom of which the four men met such a horrible death is sunk through a ledge of rock in the middle of the East river, on a line from Forty-second street to Long Island City. At the bottom of the shaft, an airlock had been construced in which the men were working in gangs of six in four-hour turns. An engine at the top of the shaft pumped air to the men in the lock through a three-inch hose. The pressure of the air within the lock kept the water out. A few minutes before four o'clock the dozen men gathered about the mouth of the shaft at the surface heard a sharp report and then a hissing noise. The air hose had burst and the supply of air to the six men at the bottom of the shaft was cut off. Frantic efforts were made to save them. Under the guidance of the superintendent in charge of the shaft, a bucket was rigged up and the superintendent and several men started down the shaft. Other workmen tried to patch the break in the hose to pump air into the lock, and save the trapped men as well as keep alive the rescuers. The rescuers were confronted with the water rushing into the shaft and lock, but their efforts were made, and two of the victims were dragged out unconscious, but still breathing. They were hurriedly hoisted to the surface. Restoratives were applied and they were hurried to the hospital. Again the rescuers went down and this time a man was brought out, but he was dead. Then another body was brought to the top. By this time the water had rushed into the lock and the bodies of the other two men were under six feet of water. The work of rescue was then abandoned and the pumps started. The bodies of the two other men killed were recovered this morning.

Affairs in Russ ans

St. Petersburg, Jan. 16.—Little news reached here today from the Baltic provinces, but information has been received indicating there is still serious troubles there.

At Autz, a small village, artillery was brought to bear on the houses and it is reported that the place was practically destroyed. One house had been filled with bombs, which exploded. All the Letts fled immediately, but a number were captured and executed by the soldiers.

Disquieting news has arrived from Vladivostok, where it is reported all the prisons were destroyed by fire and the prisoners were released. Another report from the Baltic provinces says that on the island of Ezla a detachment of dragoons has been surrounded by Letts.

Advices from Penza, in southeast Russia, confirm the reports of the assassination of General Lessowsky. At Irkutsk the assistant police minister was killed. An attempt was made to kill the vice governor, but it failed. The authorities have arrested 200 socialists.

The Legislature.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Jan. 16.—A sensation was created in the House today by some of Speaker Cardwell's committee assignments. "Bob" Lee, ranking member of courts, was sidetracked and R. E Byrd, a new member of Winchester, was made chairman over him. Lee was given the militia and police place. A. M. Bowman, of Roanoke, was jumped over Jennings and placed at the head of the finance committee; the latter gets counties, cities and towns committee. Caton heads the privilege and elections committee and is therefore floor leader. Lyon again heads the claims committee.

Resolutions were offered and referred to abolish school inspectors and a bill was offered by Mr. Gwathamy providing for a single book list.

All the Judges of the Court of Appeals were re-elected today.

Attack on Senator Depew.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 16.—In one of the bitterest speeches ever heard in the New York State legislature, Senator Brackett, of Saratoga, today arraigned United States Senator Depew. Senator Brackett began his attack upon Senator Depew on the ground of the revelations made in the recent insurance investigation. He pointed out that the Senator had received a salary of $20,000 for over twenty years for services which as a director of the Equitable he was bound to give free. He ridiculed the idea of Senator Depew's legal advice could be worth such a sum, asking when and where Senator Depew has practiced law.

Senator Brackett among other things said: "Senator Depew was originally sent to the United States Senate, and was recently re-elected to that body at the behest of the great corporate interests that cluster around Wall street, by his election seeking their own selfish ends, interests that regard and always will regard the accumulation of money as the chief aim of existence. But I arraign him most of all, as unfit longer to hold the high place which he now occupies, because he was an integral part and parcel of the most colossal scheme of public plunder that has ever been invented and put in operation by the mind of man."

At the conclusion Brackett compared the case of Depew with that of McCall, McCurdy and Hyde.

Brackett's resolution was defeated by a vote of 34 to 1. One absent, the rest excused.

Marshall Field's Condition.

New York, Jan. 16.—At 9:15 o'clock this morning, the physicians in attendance upon Marshall Field, the Chicago millionaire, who is ill with pneumonia at the Holland House, issued the following bulletin: "Mr. Field's condition is a little worse this morning than it was last evening, and there is evidence of some extension of the disease. His condition while critical, is not hopeless."

At 12:30 this afternoon the announcement was made that the condition of Marshall Field has changed very much for the worse and that his death may be expected at any time.

At one o'clock this afternoon Marshall Field's physicians issued a bulletin that indicated that the end was at hand. It read: "Mr. Field has grown worse this afternoon, and his condition has become very grave."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammed portion of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Smoot Will Case.

When the fifth day of the Smoot will case commenced in the Corporation Court this morning Miss Ella Rose Smoot, who is contesting the probating of the will of her mother, Mrs. Frances P. Smoot, and the appointment of Rev. William Strother Jones, her brother-in-law, as trustee of her share of the estate, again took the stand and was questioned by Judge Norton, one of the counsel for the proponents of the will.

During this examination Miss Smoot stated that Mrs. Jones, the wife of Rev. William Strother Jones, had caused the inscription "Beloved husband of Marie L. Bass" to be erased from the monument over the remains of the late French Smoot. The wife of the late French Smoot has again married, but her child by her former husband is one of the beneficiaries under the will.

The greater part of the morning session of the court was consumed in the reading of letters from the testatrix to other members of the family in which there were many complaints of the contestants threats to resort to the courts to compel her to make the contestant a stipulated allowance. In one of the letters Mrs. Smoot informs one of her daughters that she believes Miss Ella Smoot to be crazy.

Miss Ella Smoot then took the stand again and was questioned by Mr. Brent, her attorney, as to the making of her will some time ago. Miss Smoot stated that she made her will in the office of the late Judge McCabe, of Leesburg, who was then her counsel, and that she made no secret of having drawn the instrument.

Mr. Brent called Mr. H. K. Field to the stand in reference to the profits of the lumber yard conducted by the late J. H. D. Smoot.

Rev. W. Strother Jones several days ago testified that he had advised his mother-in-law to lease the plant to Mr. Field for two thousand dollars per annum because upon investigation he had found that it had only been paying about that amount per annum in profits for the five years preceding the lease, and he thought it would be well to have his mother-in-law relieved of the annoyances incident to the business, which was then conducted through her agent, Mr. Field.

Mr. Jones later corrected his testimony and stated that the business had shown a greater amount of profit, but that he was still of the opinion that the lease was a wise move.

When questioned by Mr. Brent, Mr. Jones admitted that his attention to the inaccuracy had been called by Mr. Field. Today, Mr. Field stated, when cross-examined by Mr. Brent, that for the five years embracing 1894 and 1898, the total profits of the business amounted to $25,306. The profits for each year consecutively were $8,793, $5,317, $3,471, $3,338 and $4,387.

Mrs. Warner Moore subsequently took the stand. She testified that in 1898 she and her mother were Mrs. Frances Smoot's guests at Colonial Beach. Witness said that Mrs. Smoot acted in a disagreeable manner toward Miss Ella and rendered it so unpleasant to witness and her mother that they remained at the beach but a few days.

Mrs. Moore was followed by Miss Mamie Graham.

After the Gazette's report closed yesterday evening, the cross-examination of Miss Rose Ella Smoot was conducted by former Judge Norton, who questioned the witness at great length as to her habits, and attempted to show that her mother had framed her will with a view to the future welfare of the contestant. The cross-examination was marked by several rather sensational incidents. When the cross examination began, Mrs. Burch, wife of Rev. Francis M. Burch and a sister of the contestant, moved her seat to one in close proximity to the examining attorney, and apparently prompted certain questions as to the conduct of her sister that were asked. At one juncture Miss Smoot denied an imputation contained in a direct question, and openly charged her sister with having prompted the question, and at another time she branded Rev. Mr. Jones "a rascal."

Middleton is Released.

Wesley D Middleton, jr., the Southern Railway clerk who was arrested in Washington Sunday night, charged with having embezzled $3,000, was released yesterday evening by order of the District Attorney. Lawyers and relatives of the prisoner have been in conference with officials of the railroad company since Middleton's arrest, and it is understood that a compromise was effected and that no further steps toward prosecution will be taken. While Middleton was in custody at the First Precinct Station Sunday night he stated that his father would make good any shortage that might be found in his accounts. All that the detective headquarters have to say is: "A settlement has been made with the interested parties. It is satisfactory with them and we have dropped the case."

The Alleged Bigamy Case.

Chief of Police Reynolds, of Newport News, has received a letter from Mrs. Ada Hunter, of 324 north St. Asaph street, Alexandria, who says she was married to J. P. Hunter February 11, 1903, and that the marriage is recorded in this city. She says she saw Hunter in June, 1905, when he said he was at Norfolk, but did not explain why. She came back in September and continued to live with her. He promised then to leave Miss Green and send for her and their child. In face of his denial of their marriage she says she must protect the rights of herself and child and will go to Norfolk to testify. Hunter has retained counsel to defend him against the charge of bigamy upon which the young [illegible] was arrested in Alexandria and carried back to Newport News.

THE CURTIN MURDER.

Harrie Meeks and Herbert Foster Committed Without Bail.

The authorities have been actively at work during the past week in endeavoring to identify the murderer or murderers of George Curtin, whose mutilated and dismembered body, almost nude, was found in the dock at the foot of Fayette alley last Monday morning by Messrs. Ashby Gorata and Walter Padgett. Mayor Paff, Commonwealth's Attorney Brent, Chief of Police Webster, Lieutenant Smith and all the members of the police force have been untiring in their labors to solve the mystery, and it is believed that their work will eventualy be crowned with success. Certain information has been obtained which gives all concerned encouragement, and there is every reason to hope that the mystery surrounding the murder of Curtin is near solution. Of course, there is nothing certain but death and taxes. Temporary disappointments are possible, but they are not regarded as probable.

The arrest of Harrie Meeks and Herbert Foster yesterday was stated in the Gazette They are charged on the warrant with murder and are being held without bail. These young men were known to have been with the unfortunate man on the night of his disappearance, and it is believed that they know more concerning Curtin's fate than they have told. There are divers rumors in circulation as to inuendoes and hints, some said to have been uttered by the suspects themselves, which actuated the authorities in issuing the warrant for their arrest.

The prisoners were locked up in separate cells in the station house and last night were brought singly before Mayor Paff, Commonwealth's Attorney Brent and Chief of Police Webster. Each was closeted with the officials about an hour before being returned to their respective cells. It is understood that there was a significant divergence in their statements

Meeks and Foster were arraigned in the Police Court this morning. The space without the bar was overflowing with spectators, among whom but two or three colored persons appeared. Commonwealth's Attorney Brent was present to conduct the prosecution and Mr. John M. Johnson appeared as counsel for the accused.

Mr. Brent moved that the prisoners be held for a further hearing, as it had been impossible to obtain certain material witnesses.

Mr. Johnson wanted to proceed with the examination.

Mr. Brent suggested that the rehearing would be held as soon as possible—probably in less than ten days.

The accused were ordered to be held, and they were locked up in separate cells.

The authorities are on the track of other individuals believed to be parties to the murder or acquainted with the facts in connection therewith. Some have suddenly vanished or are lurking in the shade.

D. A. R. Entertainment.

Tomorrow, January 17, the wedding anniversary of Gen. Washington and Martha Custis, will be celebrated at the Opera House in this city. Mr. LeRoy, a notable necromancer, will present feats of legerdemain, which will be interspersed with beautiful tableaux on American history, in which many of the loveliest young ladies and children of Alexandria will take part, aided by the Red Men of this city and the Minute Men of Washington. The object of this entertainment is to raise funds for the erection of the Virginia Column of the Continental Hall of the Daughters of the American Revolution. A colonial portico of thirteen marble monoliths are to be furnished by the thirteen colonial States. Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Delaware and others have had this amount appropriated by their State legislatures, but Virginia cannot make such an appropriation, owing to a provision of the State constitution. It therefore devolves upon the Daughters of Virginia to provide for the representation of this glorious old Commonwealth in this beautiful memorial portico. It is earnestly hoped that the citizens of Alexandria will avail themselves of this opportunity to aid so noble a cause as well as to enjoy a most delightful entertainment.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from Rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 16, 1906.

Capt. Archibald, his two mates and the life-saving crews who had refused to leave the steamer Cherokee, which lies stranded on the treacherous Brigantine shoals two miles off shore, last night abandoned the vessel.

When they left the steamer to the fate of the elements waves were rolling over the deck and pounding against the pilot house—the last refuge of the captain and his little band of men. The big vessel, which is valued at about half a million dollars, will probably be a total loss.

Last night two wrecking tugs and a lighter were hovering in the vicinity of the Cherokee, and their crews will, at the first opportunity, strip the steamer of whatever is worth the salvage. Capt. Archibald and his mates are at the Brigantine life-saving station.

During the day Capt. Mark Casto, who Sunday made the sensational rescue of sixty persons from the steamer, went out to the stranded vessel in the sloop yacht Sinbad, accompanied by Capt. C. M. Kessler and a small crew, and brought ashore all the baggage of the passengers and crew. All the property was forwarded to the owners last night.

Overcrowded Hotels.

There was no more room in the hotels of New York last night. The capacity had been reached all the way from the Battery to Harlem and never before had this condition prevailed. General prosperity was given as the cause for the crowding. Everywhere money is plentiful and nearly everybody wants to spend his share of it in New York. In the Waldorf-Astoria yesterday more than 400 persons who applied for accommodation were obliged to seek elsewhere. More than 1,500 persons, equalling the record made during Horse Show week, were sleeping in the big structure last night. It was said in the lobby of this hotel that one man who had arrived from the West in the early afternoon and was referred to another hotel, visited in succession 12 before he found a room. The St. Regis turned away many persons during the day, while the new Gotham did the best day's business in its history. The Manhattan was booked full from last week and the Astor had to turn away scores.

Girl Eludes Negro.

On her way to work early Saturday morning Jennie Elston, 19 years old, of Camden, N. J., was waylaid by a negro, who attempted to assault her. She was riding a bicycle along a path at Harleigh Cemetery, when she was suddenly thrown to the ground. About to get on her feet, she saw a big negro about to grab her. The young woman drew a liquid pistol and fired in the fellow's face, temporarily blinding the negro. She mounted her wheel and disappeared, leaving the negro on the sidewalk rubbing his eyes. This is the second time within a week that a woman has been waylaid by a negro in the same locality.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris, is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Vanleer, Tenn. "I had a cough for fourteen years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief and affected a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure for Throat and Lung Troubles. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

A Liquid Cold Cure.

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the Liquid Cold Cure. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Gives strength to weak lungs. Affords immediate relief in Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Poterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Many sufferers from nasal catarrh say they get splendid results by using an atomizer. For their benefit we prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Except that it is a liquid it is in all respects like the healing, helpful, pain-allaying Cream Balm that the public has been familiar with for years. No cocaine nor other dangerous drug in it. The soothing spray relieves at once and cure is certain. All druggists, 75c., including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

Soothing and Comforting.

The soothing and comforting effects of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, when applied to Piles, sores, cuts, boils, etc., subdues pain almost instantly. This Salve draws out the inflammation, reduces swelling and acts as a rubefacient, thus circulating the blood through the diseased parts, permitting or aiding Nature to permanently remove the trouble entirely. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

"It affords me pleasure to testify to the merits of Gowan's Pneumonia Cure. Last December I was threatened with pleurisy; in fact the physician pronounced it pleurisy, and treated me for two weeks for the trouble, with no beneficial results. A friend gave me a trial bottle of your remedy, and I was completely restored to health within a very short time. You certainly have a marvelous remedy, and I never fail to speak a good word for it. I shall always keep a bottle of it on hand for emergencies.
